October 2015

Have a great Thanksgiving long weekend. We hope it is filled with family, friends and yummy food!

Get your costumes ready for our Halloween Dance on October 29th. Great light show, fun music, yummy treats...it should be a "spook-tacular" time. Keep an eye out for our flyer for more information.

Get into the Christmas Spirit! The Home and School Committee will be hosting a Christmas craft evening on Wednesday, November 18th. Keep an eye out for a notice in early November.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

Bel Ayr is hosting our third annual Evening at Chapters at Mic Mac Mall on Sunday, November 22nd (please note the date change) from 3 - 7pm. Purchase your books, magazines, and music during that time and Bel Ayr will receive 20% of the total spent that evening.

This rebate will be put towards buying more books for our library. What a great way to get your Christmas shopping done! More information will be coming out early November.

Please note the date change for Breakfast with Santa... It has been changed to Saturday, December 12th.

Thank-you to all those who came out to support our Chili Night. It was an evening of delicious food and great conversation.

Special thanks to:

- Our candy apple makers and our apple crisp baker
- Sheila Manuel, whose generous food donations are greatly appreciated;
- Vernon, who gave us that amazing chili;
- Mrs Crossley's class who set up the tables and chairs; and
- those parents who helped stack chairs and tables.
